By Kaya

Isabella yawned as she threw the blanket off the bed.

"Another day here we go!" She walked past the bathroom all the way to the kitchen. She signed "Oh hey mum didn't know you were there😂".

Jessica (Isabella's mum) signed "Oh darling it's time for school you look like a mess get changed and brush your teeth!"

Isabella ran in her bedroom, got changed and brushed her teeth and ran to the bus.

"Wait for me!"

Isabella called her friend on the bus. She ran through the door and took a seat.....

After class.....

Bell rings!

Isabella signed to her friend Lilly "Finally i'm super hungry!"

Lilly replied, signing "Me too!"

They all ate lunch together🥗.

Isabella walked home when she got stopped by a man. Isabella signed

"What are you doing?"

The man replied "What are you saying? I can only talk." Isabella's jaw dropped

"What!! You don't know sign language?! How'd you get here"

The man Rome replied saying

"I was sleeping then I ended up here..."

Isabella recently read a newspaper article about a guy named Rome missing in America.

She'd popped the question "Hey, are you from America?" She asked.

Rome replied "Yes..?"

3 hours later...

As they both were searching for clues/evidence for what'd happen. Rome found his phone to find 50 texts and 34 missing calls. Rome and Isabella looked at each other and knew exactly what to do. Rome texted his mum and called her but no one answered. They finally decided to go to the airport. There were some dudes selling plane tickets at the front Rome bought one ticket Rome standing in front of Isabella with his slicked back brown hair with his angelic ocean blue eyes meanwhile Isabella blushed and said "Goodbye!"

Rome replied "Bye!"

The Next Day.

When Isabella woke up she started to feel her heart beat fast as a cheetah could run, but when she thought of Rome it stopped.

Later on she continued with her day and she decided to keep it a secret to her BEST FRIEND which she NEVER does... But she thought it'd be all alright. Recess time bell🔔🥗

She started having stomach pains when she'd eaten nothing. She decided to ignore it and just have fun because it was the last week of school.

Lilly and her played on the monkeybars like their always meant to be doing but finally she told Lilly about the stomach pains Lilly told her to go to the sickbay.

Isabella said to "Wait until the bell goes"

7 minutes later

Bell rings 🔔

Isabella ran to the nurse while she was running she thought of Rome it stopped but she was already in the nurses room. The nurse asked "Whatcha need honey"

Isabella said "Oh i'm fine-"

The nurse replied "Sit down sweetheart i'll check you out. Just wait there a minute i'll be back here's a newspaper article to read"

Isabella grabbed it and started reading it. She found some facts but one of them said "Did you know! That if a Auslan person connects with an American person and go back to their worlds they start malfunctioning or stomach pains! But to stop that they must be together!"

Isabella was worrying about Rome. The nurse was back "Hey there sweetie I got you a-"

Isabella said "I'll be all fine to go!"

She grabbed her phone and called Rome. He answered and said "Hey there what's wrong"

She said " Have you been having stomach pains recently?"

Rome replied "uh yes why?"

She said confidently "I know why."

She sent him a picture of the newspaper article. He was shocked "Act quickly NOW!" he said.

The next day

They both decided to stay in the Auslan world so Rome packed his luggage and is coming to stay with Isabella. Rome knocked on the door Isabella slammed it open. "Oh hi!"

3 years later.m

Isabella was signing to Rome because he'd learnt sign language Rome was happy because he felt included in the Auslan community.

They both got married 2 years later. The end.
