

ASLIA

Australian Sign Language Interpreters' Association

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Perth, Australia • Friday 29th - Sunday 31st August 2014

A Profession On The Move

The ASLIA National Conference (ANC) is the largest annual event of its type for sign language interpreters within the Australasia and Oceania region. The conference is also open to interpreters and translators from other language communities, service providers, consumers of interpreting services, and interpreting/translation students.

This event is the largest gathering of Auslan/English interpreters and allied professionals that is regularly held in Australia.

Venue & Location

ANC 2014 will be held at the centrally located Duxton Hotel, 1 St George's Terrace, Perth, Western Australia.

Located in the heart of the city, the hotel is a short walk from Perth's major shopping, entertainment and restaurant centres. Many of Perth's attractions are within easy reach of the conference venue.

The Duxton Hotel is approximately 15km from the Domestic Airport and approximately 17km from the International Airport.

Program

Dr Robert Adam
International Keynote
Presenter

Dr Robert Adam is a Research Associate at the Deafness Cognition and Language Research Centre at University College London, UK and in 2014 was Visiting Professor in the Department of ASL and Deaf Studies at Gallaudet University, USA.

The full conference program can be found on our website along with the presenter bios and their abstracts.

Registration

Registration closes on Friday, 15 August 2014 at 5:00 p.m. (AEST).

There are a number of registration options available, including full, single day, conference welcome and conference dinner registrations.

SLIANZ & AUSIT members are able to register at the ASLIA member price for ANC.

To secure your place at ANC 2014

Register Now!